At Heart of the Valley YMCA, we understand that military families are under enormous strain. Families – and especially children – face many challenges with frequent overseas deployments, relocations and the stresses that come with military life. As a member of the Y, you and your family can spend quality time together and enjoy fun activities in a warm, supportive environment. It's also a place to meet other military families who can relate to your unique situation.

Partnering with the Armed Services YMCA, Heart of the Valley YMCA operates three branches, three child care centers and one resident camp providing a variety of programs especially designed to help military families and their children.

can we receive free membership?

Heart of the Valley YMCA offers free membership to families of deployed soldiers while their loved one is serving abroad. Here are the groups eligible for free membership:

- Family members of deployed Active Duty, National Guard & Reservists
- Returning deployed personnel and their families
- Wounded service members assigned to a Community Based Warrior in Transition Unit (CBWTU)
- Relocated spouse/dependent children of deployed Active Duty personnel

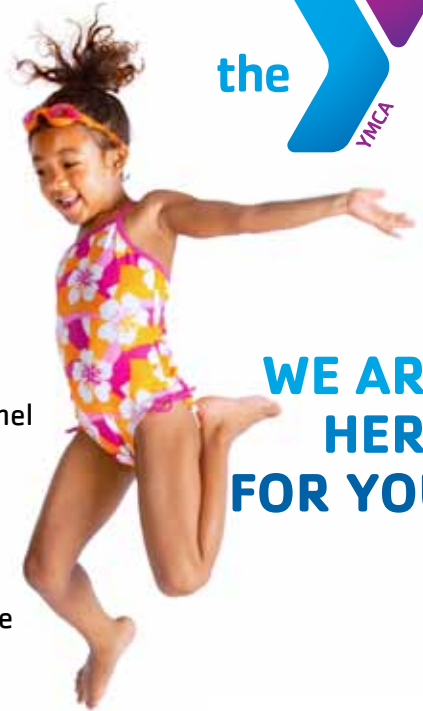

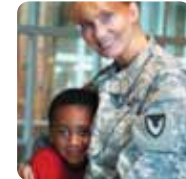

The following criteria must be met:

The service member is on active duty.

The service member is deployed for a minimum of six months.

The spouse has relocated away from the military installation where the service member is assigned (most often, back home near family).

WE ARE
FOR YOU

“When my husband Chris was deployed to Iraq, we were offered a free family YMCA membership. The kids loved to be at the Y. We were there almost every day. The kids were used to playing rough and tumble with their daddy, and the Y was the perfect way to have them spend energy while he was gone. I also took advantage of the Kids’ Night Out to go run errands.

Today our family is reunited, but we still have our membership at the Y.” – Sarah McDavid how do we get started?

Bring a copy of your spouse’s deployment papers and your military I.D. to the Y branch near you. YMCA branch addresses and phone numbers are listed on the back of this page.
